What is a Living Room Concert?

Living Room Concerts happen in homes with small groups of people (10-20 persons usually). There is no stage, no sound system, no rigid schedule- the feel is relaxed and laid-back, where people can comment, make a request, hear the stories behind the music, and maybe even write a song together!

How it works

You as the host family will confirm a date with 40 miles North and invite up to 20 guests. Once your guests arrive, we all gather and eat together, either a full meal (recommended) or refreshments. After the meal is done, we all move to a large room of your home for a 40 miles North concert. The concert generally lasts 45 minutes to an hour, and this can be adjusted to suit your needs. After the concert, your guests will pick out their CDs to take home with them (see below). Your guests will also have the option to purchase additional 40 miles North CDs at a reduced price.

Financial Arrangements

- Guests pay $12/person to attend, and that fee buys them a 40mN CD of their choosing. It is the host family's responsibility to inform guests of this fee and to collect it from them.
- Minimum fee for a Living Room Concert is $120, even if less than 10 people are present.
- 40 miles North requests a non-refundable earnest deposit of $50, mailed with this contract, to secure the date. The host family will then issue a single check for the balance to 40 miles North on the day of the event.
- There is no fee for the host family, so they are not included in the total number of the guest list.
- 40 miles North does not ask for mileage, gas, or any other expense reimbursements for Living Room Concerts.

Special needs:

To keep our costs down, we would like to avoid hiring a babysitter for our 2 daughters. We request that you supply a caring, responsible adult to care for our girls, age 2 ½ and 9 months, and make available a room in your home suitable for young children to play in. Please have this person available for the duration of the event, from our arrival (15 minutes prior to start time) until our departure.
